The only difficulty with that system is that the number of eggs produced doesn't make the egg money look very big.

Fortunately the average farm program for chickens is changing—high priced eggs and high priced feed are both responsible.

Shells of Long Range Gun

Weights 200 Pounds and Contains Less Than Twenty Pounds of Explosives

The calibre of the shells that are fired into Paris by the German long-range guns is 8.6 inches and the length of the shell is twenty inches. L'Homme Libre, Premier Clemenceau's newspaper, states: "The shell weighs 200 pounds, and contains less than twenty pounds of explosives."

The shell is provided with a fuse protected by a third, copper, and has a diaphragm inside which divides the shell into two compartments of unequal size. Two holes in the diaphragm afford communication between the two pockets.

These facts are accepted as an explanation of the two explosions which on occasions have followed in quick succession, and which lead to the belief that two guns, were firing.

Sea Control Means Victory

Command of the Sea Upon Which the Existence of the British Empire Depends

Germany has raised about her a ring of implacable enemies upon the sea, whose strength continues to increase, and who are pledged utterly to destroy German sea-power. Give them time enough and they will certainly do it. Now the position of Germany is that she won't win the war on land she would still be beaten at sea. And, deprived of the use of the sea, of what use would be her territorial gains? They would be valuable, but they would not serve to restore the oversea commerce upon which depends her ability to trade. The rulers of Germany suffer under no illusions on the subject. Their dread lest the German people should learn the true state of affairs is so extreme that they are compelled to exaggerate the losses inflicted by submarine warfare, the exaggeration on one occasion reaching 70 per cent. So far as this country is concerned, it is our part, first and last, to regain and to maintain that command of the sea upon which the existence of the British empire depends, which is only now disputed by the nation which would sacrifice no sacrifice can be refused.—London Morning Post.

German writers estimate the grand total of Germans killed and prisoners, adding those dying of illness and wounds and casualties in colonial and naval fighting at $500,000.

Karl Bleisner, the German military writer, declares in New Europa that German losses on the west front between August, 1914, and August, 1917, totalled 2,694,226. On the east front he said the total of killed and prisoners was 1,484,550.

German writers estimate the German losses between August, 1917, and January, 1918, as 367,450 killed and taken prisoners "on both fronts."

Willful Waste of Food

Canada Food Board Will Deal Severely With Offenders

Willful waste of any food or food products or waste resulting from carelessness in the use of food facilities, has been made illegal and subject to penalties by order of the Canada food board. By the terms of this order, responsibility is laid upon private citizens to see that no food is lost by being kept too long or kept in improper conditions. If a private citizen has reason to believe that a cold storage warehouse, store, restaurant or hotel is wasting food in any way, he has now the opportunity of making a complaint to the municipal authorities with the knowledge that the law is behind him. At a time like this, when food is so scarce in the world and so high in price even in Canada, the comparative abundance still prevails, it is the positive duty of the private citizen to uphold the law against waste and to carry out the full spirit of the law in his own household and in his own daily routine.

In the past it has been the habit of many people to complain bitterly about lack of regulations in regard to waste and to lay responsibility upon the government. The constant remark was "Why doesn't the government do something?" The cost of storage in some far off city by the Winnipeg war develop some imperfection and some thousands of pounds of food would be spoiled through the carelessness of the individual. The question, "Why doesn't the government do something?" The fact that local initiative might be slow to come to many good people. The new order against waste makes it abundantly clear that the government is doing something.

It has, in fact, done all it could without creating special and expensive machinery for the purpose. It has followed the principle of local enforcement and the decentralization of authority. It has provided for the breaking of the law against waste of food and it has provided that prosecutions be undertaken by local officers. If the municipal health inspector or any municipal officer discovers waste in a local cold storage warehouse, he has the power to call upon the magistrate or two justices of the peace and, securing a conviction, secure the original offender. Similarly in the case of a provincial officer securing a conviction. The penalties are fairly severe, amounting to a fine of up to $100 and in the case of a provincial officer securing a conviction, the offender is liable to imprisonment up to six months.

If a citizen is careless and wasteful, both fine and imprisonment may be his. It is the duty of the local authorities to learn that food is being held when it should be sold for fear of spoiling, and to see that the waste of food board. The board is in its turn authorized to notify the offender and to see that the offender is at once and in default of obedience, the board itself may step in and seize the goods and sell them.

Most people in this country realize that there is a great war raging and that people on whom the world depends are in dire straits of starvation. Some few apparently do not. This new law does much to teach them.

German Miscalculation

Cannot Estimate the Tenacity of the French or British Soldiers

It can be here stated that those torn hosts, our allies, have accomplished the greatest feat of the world's history. They have stopped a German drive which seemed invincible. The Germans allowed 30 per cent. of their army to be killed. That is, they credited the allies with being 30 per cent. stronger than they knew them to be. Sure nothing on earth could stand before their drive, even though that something were 30 per cent. stronger than reckoned.

Today Germany knows as few men new before that she cannot estimate the tenacity of the French and British soldiers. She knows that she has all underestimated the fighting qualities of these free people. She is beginning to understand that there is another element in warfare besides number of men and weight of guns. It must be through even the thick head of a German military commander that there is something superior in the British and French to their own dumb soldiers.

Manhood! That is what Germany miscalculated. Courage! She failed to put it upon paper! Grit, determination not to allow the Huns to pass, righteousness of the cause and the inspiration that comes from righteousness—that is what Germany could not calculate. And, thank God for these virtues of the British and French—our allies—for the barbarians are not in Paris and they are not leading the way into the East from the Columbus Dispatch.

Kindness Private Simpkins had returned from the front, to find that his girl had been walking out with another young man, and naturally asked her to explain her frequent promenades in the town with the gentleman.

"Well, dear," she replied, "I was so kind on his part. He just took me down every day to the library to see if you were killed."

It is believed that nearly 30 per cent. of Canada is still undiscovered, and if Indian reports are to be believed there is in the basin of the Mackenzie river one of the largest areas of possible oil bearing country on the face of the earth. The Indians report that existence takes a hundred miles and over long in Yukon that no white man has ever seen, while even the Indians apparently know nothing of the as yet untrodden Mackenzie Mountains.

Bound to Win

Going to March to Berlin if It Takes 5,000,000 Men to Do It

It may take all America to win the war, but it will be on hand when the country does. This country does not entertain for one moment any doubt as to what the result will be. It realizes its power and will make it count when Germany seems to gain a point. Why, we haven't begun to fight yet. We are still getting ready and we are yet far short of our determination to get ready. We are going to march to Berlin if it takes 5,000,000 men to do it, and we will provide them all they need to eat while on the way. This republic is getting more in earnest every day, and it will keep on until the Kaiser and his cruel frightfulness are driven back to the shades of Prussia to stay and rot. That is the sort of determination which rules this republic, and it is growing stronger every day. We may suffer some reverses, but they will not figure in the final solution.—Ohio State Journal.

The Foremost British Airman

Bugle Boy Is Now Britain's Star Among Aviators

Every honor for valor that a British officer can gain has been won by Capt. James Byford McCudden, the star British airman, who has just received the Victoria Cross and other distinctions, in the order of their award, include the Distinguished Service Order, a bar to the D.S.O., the Croix de Guerre, Military Cross, bar to the Military Cross, and the Military Medal.

McCudden, who is now twenty-three years old, entered the British army as a bugler eight years ago. He went to France as a private in the original expeditionary force. Having had some experience in the air he was pressed into service as an observer at Mons and gave valuable information of enemy movements during the retreat. From a sergeant he was promoted to a commissioned rank as an observer and quickly won fame for his handling of a machine gun in aerial fighting.

He was shot down by a German plane on the night of the 15th of the British side of the lines. On two occasions the British side has totally destroyed four two-seater enemy airplanes on the same day, and on the occasion all four machines were destroyed in the space of one hour and thirty minutes. With his squadron he has participated in seventy-eight offensive raids, and on at least thirty other occasions he has crossed the enemy lines alone, either in pursuit of or in quest of enemy airplanes.

"This officer is considered," says the official London Gazette, "by the record which he has made, by his fearlessness and by the great service he has rendered to his country, deserving of the very highest honor."

"The Last Quarter of an Hour"

A Tenacity That Rises Above Every Depression and Returns Blow for Blow

The one phrase of the war, the words that best sum up our battle and our task, the words to save us from both elation and despair, fell recently from the lips of Premier Clemenceau. "We shall win the war in the last quarter of an hour," he said.

There is no easy victory in this picture. It looks to a desperate struggle of giant losses, of swaying battle lines, of advances and retreats, of long and weary nights, of days and weeks of yielding strategic ground, of mishaps and local disaster. It looks as well to an unrelenting war, a tenacity that knows no defeat, that rises above every depression and returns blow for blow until there is no more to be said, battered, gasping, we still hit—and win.

The phrase is good medicine for easy optimists and easy pessimists alike. Wait for the last quarter of an hour. In the meantime, fight, fight, fight.—New York Tribune.

"The cheapness of Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator puts it within reach of all, and can be got at any drugist's."

A Discouraging Query A pretty girl at an evening party was bawling a genial bachelor on his reasons for remaining single.

"I never was exactly disappointed in love," he said. "I was what you might call discouraged. You see, when I was very young I became very much enamored of a young lady of my acquaintance. I was mortally afraid to tell her of my feeling, but at length I screwed up my courage to the proposing point. I said, 'Let's get married.' And she said, 'Why, who'd have us?'—Pearson's.

Deadly Bolsheviki Oratory There's no danger of the Japanese and British allies who have landed at Vladivostok being driven off in the Bolsheviki, but it's hoped they'll all married men or there'll be a fear of their being talked to death.—Butelo Express.

The West is Sound

The West is Coming to the Fore With Flying Colors

Notwithstanding the gloomy predictions concerning the financial soundness of Western municipalities, and notably of the cities, in the past few years ago, the West is coming to the fore with flying colors. There never was a time when the West, in the mentioning in the financial affairs of the rural municipalities; but conditions were quite otherwise with respect to some of the cities and towns of Alberta and Saskatchewan. The important centres are making rapid headway in their financial affairs in order; but to do so it has required strict regulation of expenditures and the careful collection of revenues from taxation. — Monetary Times.

A GOOD DIGESTION

Depends Upon Keeping the Blood Rich, Red and Pure

To be able to eat what you want and to digest it properly is a priceless blessing. Good digestion is not appreciated until you lose it. It cannot afford to experiment. For strong medicines are hard on weak stomachs. If you have indigestion you do not persuade him to believe you can cure yourself by the use of pre-digested foods or so-called stomachics. You must go to the source of the trouble and get the blood going to assimilate and digest food as the blood goes to every part of the body. It is through the blood that the food gets its power to assimilate and digest food as the blood goes to every part of the body. Rich red blood is absolutely necessary to good digestion. If your stomach is weak and you are troubled with sour risings in the throat, a feeling of pressure about the chest, or nausea or indigestion, the tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. So many despondent have been cured by this medicine that you suffer from stomach trouble should try it. You will soon know if you're good digestion and enjoy better health in other ways.

If you give this medicine a fair trial, Mr. Fred J. Kendall, Darlin, Ave. Five years I was a great sufferer from indigestion, which gradually undermined my general health, leaving me in a weak and anemic condition. I spent considerable money with one doctor and another, but failed to receive any lasting benefit. I had become quite discouraged. One day my wife urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. When I began to take the box was finished, I noticed a slight improvement, and I continued taking them until I had completely gained. I could sleep better and my appetite improved, without the distressing symptoms that had previously followed eating. I think I took in all about a dozen boxes, and today I am a stronger man than I ever was in my life. When I began to take the pills I weighed 143 pounds while now I weigh 167. You may use this medicine with the hope of it may reach some poor discouraged sufferer as I was."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Too Little Exercise

THE necessity of using medicine to regulate the action of the liver, kidneys and bowels is largely due to the changed conditions of life during recent years.

Our fathers lived a life of activity in the open air. If they ate heartily they had sufficient exercise to keep the liver and bowels active and to thereby remove the poisonous waste from the body.

To-day we get too little exercise and too little fresh air. The food we eat is more concentrated and artificial. The result is much discomfort and the development of serious disease from constipation of the bowels and torpid condition of the liver. Kidney disease, rheumatism, lumbago, backache—all have their beginning in the inactivity of the liver and bowels.

The great secret of keeping in health is to look to the regularity of these filtering and eliminating organs, and Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills is the most satisfactory medicine obtainable for this purpose.

If you read the reports appearing in this paper, from time to time, from persons who have used this treatment with good results, you will find that Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are effective where ordinary medicines fail. This success is due to their combined action on the liver, kidneys and bowels. One pill a dose at bedtime as often as is necessary to keep the bowels in healthful action, will also ensure the regularity of the liver and kidneys and thereby keep the blood pure and the system free from the accumulating poisons which cause disease and suffering.

The wild rose, very common on the prairie, is also found in other provinces, but the fact that it is the emblem of England spoils its chances of being adopted here.

The choice of a national flower emblem is a difficult matter and there will, no doubt, be much opposition to the adoption of the orange red lily. The maple leaf, long accepted as the emblem of Canada, is not suitable, as the sugar maple is unknown in the prairie provinces. — Manitoba Free Press.

A Small Difference
Pat. O'Toole, a notori. poacher, being out at dawn in search of game, the Duke of Norfolk's estates, on arriving at a large cornfield, suddenly met the duke coming toward him. "Good morning, yer honor," he said, seeing it impossible to clear off unseen; "and what brought you out this early this morning?" "I came to see the corn," said the duke, "but he had just taken a stroll to get an appetite for breakfast, and then, looking suspiciously at the Irishman, asked: "Why are you out so early?" "Faith," was the reply, "I came to get a breakfast for me appetite."

The TRAIL BLAZER
 to greater Motor Car Value

From the standpoint of dollar for dollar value there's not a car made which offers more for your money than the famous Chevrolet Four-Ninety A.
 Before the Chevrolet was made in Canada, good cars were all high in price.
 But our mammoth production and manufacturing efficiency enables us to sell the Chevrolet Four-Ninety A at a price much lower than its value when compared with other makes of cars.
 With the surplus power developed by the famous valvetrain head motor the owner of a Four-Ninety A invariably is the "trail blazer."

Standard equipment includes speedometer, electric starting and lighting, ammeter, oil indicator light equipment, one man top, demountable rims, non-skid tires on rear wheels and many features usually looked for in cars much higher in price.

War and Food

No. 14— BUTTER

Canada's butter exports have been the lowest for a number of years and while in 1905 her net exports amounted to 33,888,074 pounds, in 1916 they had dropped to 6,993,100 pounds.

On the other hand, Britain's normal imports of butter amount to 452,795,264 pounds and her shortage due to the war is 209,148,784 pounds.

As much butter as possible should be made on the farms of Canada. Every pound that the farmer's wife can make will find a ready market. The butter-making industry is a hundredfold it would still be sold.

Butter-making now should be one of the most profitable sources of income on the farm and it is one in which the farmer's wife is particularly interested. A considerable quantity of the butter made in Canada is churned right on the farms. The trouble is that in many cases there is a lack of proper equipment with the result that the butter does not come up to the standard of creamery butter. There are many even today that use the old-fashioned butter-maker which is supplied with a full outfit of utensils and apparatus for the butter-making. The maximum quantity of butter from the cream. On the other hand, the farmer's wife is frequently nearly capped for lack of equipment.

With the great demand for butter, the farmer's wife should make a profitable investment on the part of the farmer and his wife to get the most up-to-date and scientific equipment for their butter-making. At the same time goes on the market will widen for the milk cows of Europe are becoming scarce and the time and much dependence will be placed on the North American continent for a supply of butter.

Whether the butter-making equipment on the farm is up-to-date or old-fashioned, the output should be as large as possible. The scarcity of fats is among the most serious of food problems in Europe.

Corn in Plenty

Ship Over All the Wheat There Is and Rely Upon Corn

Canadians probably do not realize the extent to which wheat is being moved in the United States. It is not a case over there of an occasional wheating meal; but every effort is being made to induce the nearest possible approach to total abstinence. In a recent statement by the federal food board, the American people were urged to depend wholly upon corn, which is now available in large quantities. "It is believed that during the last eighteen months the milling capacity for corn flour has increased 500 per cent," the board declares. "If the American people would give up wheat for corn flour, there would be an abundance of corn meal, with what corn flour is available, to care for all the needs of the next harvest." Corn cannot be successfully shipped to Europe for consumption by the people and the armies; therefore, the effect of the U. S. food board is, in effect, to ship over all the wheat there is and rely upon corn. While there is corn in plenty there will be no famine in the land.

American Meat Eater

Gradually the Idea of the Light Breakfast Being Inculcated in the Popular Mind

The American is interperate in the use of meat. At the breakfast table of the country hotel where the American plan still obtained, the steak found, until Mr. Hoover intervened, a place among the many dishes that confronted the guest. The hotel official proclaims the private household, and the presence of a steak at a country hotel breakfast was doubtless in response to the demand of those accustomed to such fare in their own homes. And it was not so long ago that a similar breakfast was served in city hotels conducted on the American plan. But gradually the idea of the light breakfast has been inculcated into the popular mind and fruit and eggs, perhaps with bacon, have replaced the breakfast board groaning with calories.

Unless a person is engaged in heavy manual labor, he should not be eaten more than once a day, and never should be eaten more than twice a day. As Dr. Landis says, a piece of meat the size of the palm of one's hand is sufficient for those whose mode of life does not include heavy labor. Any excess makes demands on your organs leading to premature debilitation. Mr. Hoover has taught us to avoid over-indulgence in meat on the other days. He or she who acquires the Hoover habit during these corn times, carries it into the inevitable days of peace will be among those benefited by the war.—Cincinnati Times-Star

Hindenburg Horrors

Articles Now on Sale in Germany for the Purpose of Fomenting Hero-worship

Professor Zazulke, curator of the West German Museum of Industrial Arts at Stuttgart, has organized a chamber of Hindenburg horrors in his museum under the name of "Hindenburg Cult Department." It consists of an immense collection of utensils and articles now on sale in Germany for the purpose of fomenting hero-worship of Hindenburg. An article in the Berliner Illustrirte Zeitung, which describes some of the horrors, states that the demand for them is so great that an entire industry for their manufacture has sprung into existence and is flourishing. Some of the articles on exhibition are:

Money boxes, in which coins are passed through his mouth.

Pincushions, in which pins may be stuck through his eyes.

Soup plates, from the bottom of which his face emerges when the plates are emptied or braced.

Stoppers for bottles, consisting of his head in silver or brass.

Chair cushions, enabling one to sit upon him.

Baby comforters, with which infants may be soothed by sucking his head.

Hindenburg dolls, from which the uniform can be taken off and replaced, including a breast full of medals.

Pocket mirrors, reflecting one's own face on one side and Hindenburg's on the other.

It is stated that Hindenburg hero-worship is now more rampant than that lavished upon either Bismarck or Napoleon, who held the records previously.

Look at the Map

Persons returning from Germany say that the walls of the cities are placarded with maps showing the extent of the territory occupied by the central powers since the beginning of the war. Great Britain is less than a postage stamp in size. The map shows that not one foot of British territory is occupied by the central powers, while Great Britain is in possession of more than half the territory over which the German flag floated at the beginning of the war.—Los Angeles Times

Spend or Die!

The Price Which We are Paying to Save Our Country

In the house of commons, Mr. Bonar Law moved a vote of credit for £500,000,000. That, to quote Mr. Hopkinson, is "a bit of money." It is so much that the ordinary man, used to counting the change of a man's pocket, cannot realize the meaning of this gigantic vote is required to meet a daily war expenditure of nearly seven millions. This is the price which we are paying to save our country and our families from the Germans. The price is heavy, but, as the Rev. W. B. Hanks said yesterday: "If they got here you would have as much use for your money as Dives had for his in hell." It is no good crying, quacking at the ultimate economic effect of our tremendous spending. We have to spend or die. Freedom, social progress, decent labor conditions, all will go unless we smash the power of Prussian militarism.—London Daily Express

TEETHING TROUBLES

Baby's teething time is a time of worry and anxiety to most mothers. But there is no need to be so. Baby's little stomach becomes deranged and constipation and colic sets in. To make the teething period easy on baby the stomach and bowels must be kept sweet and regular. This can be done by the use of Baby's Own Tablets, the ideal laxative for little ones. Concerning them Mrs. Henry Bernard, St. Emile, Que., says: "Baby's Own Tablets cured my baby of constipation and made his teething painless." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

At Pool of Bethesda

An English reservist, who was living near Sudbury, Ont., before the war, writes to his old neighbors from the Pool of Bethesda, Palestine: "I tasted the water—not too clean—and in order to do it had to descend lots of steps, as the well is deep down in the ground. At the entrance one may, if one wishes, read in several different languages the account of the healing described in the fifth chapter of John—a quite different story from the one in the Bible. I thought differently, and not finding his mother-tongue represented, promptly wrote it all out in Welsh from his own Testament. So now there are seventy-eight different versions for visitors to choose from."

Minard's Liniment Used by Physicians

"The Age of Reason

"Jimmy giggled when the teacher read the account of the Roman who swam across the Tiber three times before breakfast.

"You do not doubt that a trained swimmer could do that, do you Jimmy?" the teacher demanded.

"No, ma'am," answered Jimmy. "But I wondered why he didn't make four times and get back to the side his clothes were on."—Vancouver Province.

A Soldier's Chances

Some Interesting Statistics Based Upon Investigations

The military hospital commission at Quebec has kept an account of how Canadian troops fared in the war and has compiled some interesting statistics based upon its investigations.

Addressing Canadian mothers and fathers the commission says:

If your boy goes to the front:

He has 29 chances of coming home to one chance of being killed.

He has 98 chances of recovering from a wound to two chances of dying.

He has only one chance in 500 of losing a limb.

He will live five years longer because of physical training.

He is freer from disease in the army than in civil life.

He has better medical care at the front than at home.

In other wars from 10 to 15 men died from disease to one from bullet.

In this war one man dies from disease to every ten from bullets. This war is proportionately less a war of life than any other in history.

Only 10 per cent. of all Canadians disabled for further service have been physically unable to engage in their former occupations.

If your boy is one of the ten per cent. the government will re-engage him in another vocation at which he can earn a living.

This does not mean that war is a danger-free occupation, and that life in the trenches is as comfortable as in the easy chair here at home, but it does not mean that the soldier is as much at a disadvantage as he has been in former occupations.

If your boy is one of the ten per cent. the government will re-engage him in another vocation at which he can earn a living.

PUTNAM'S FINE FOR CORNS THAT ACHE

Even a drop or two of Putnam's Extractor takes the sting out of a sore corn. Mighty slick work Putnam's Extractor does on corns. You see Putnam's shivers the corn up quickly, transforms it to a bunch of dead skin, loosens it from the toe so you can pick it off, roots and branches, with your fingers. It's painless—that is why Putnam's is so popular. It does really cure quickly—that's why you should take a quarter to the drug store today and get a bottle of Putnam's Extractor.

Friends Fought In Mine Crater

Convinced That He Was Chasing a German

During a pitch black night a Canadian officer, feeling his way back to his lines, slipped into a mine crater. He didn't go down, or he would have been drowned in slush and slime. As he was trying to get back he was aware that he was not alone. It was a German, crawling probably forty feet in diameter—he could just make out a man's figure in front of him. As he crept forward the other man did the same. Soon the officer was convinced that he was chasing a German and opened fire with a revolver. Round and round the circular, slimy slope they rushed, until at last the Canadian officer slipped dangerously and uttered the usual, swear words. Immediately a good Canadian sang out from the other side, "Who the hell are you?" "I'm So-and-so of the — regiment!" These two men from the same regiment, quite good friends, had been chased by the other around this crater like a couple of cats for nearly half an hour.

Implied Character

A local draper tells a story of a young man from L'Annapolis, P.E.I., who went to London to obtain a berth. "Ah!" said the prospective employer, "what is the meaning of L'Annapolis?"

"The Land of Five Sains," was the reply.

"There are five saints there now?"

"Not now, only four."

"The young man got the berth—Reading (Eng.) Standard.

"Cop" Imperturbability

Sheels Were Going Up and Bombs Coming Down

A correspondent tells the following story in the Westminster Gazette, illustrating the imperturbability of the London police during air raids:

In one of the earlier raids a rattled little man rushed out of a house in his pyjamas and bedroom slippers. The policeman drew him over to all the searchlights on it, and shells were going up and bombs coming down.

The policeman stumbled up to a stalwart policeman who was standing quite unmoved at the corner of the street, and with his teeth chattering, pointed upwards and exclaimed: "A Zeppelin—Zeppelin!"

The policeman drew himself up, gazed steadily at the Zeppelin for a full minute, and then remarked slowly: "Stupid aircraft, in my judgment."

And the little man hitched up his pyjamas and went back to bed.

Americans and British

Not Until They Got Acquainted That the Process of Liking Began

Of the hundreds of American officers who have passed through the British training camps back of the line, or are on their way through, I have heard of one who has not come out of his experience with a better liking for the Britisher. Not that they cheer for their hosts, but as a broad proposition, they have found the Briton a bully sort. The Briton declares the American a most likable chap. Neither thought in advance they could ever learn to like the other. It was not until they got acquainted that the process of liking began. It is still individual liking—not liking in mass.—Everybody's Magazine.

Wellcome Hot Drinks

A Y.M.C.A. shelter is maintained just below the line in France, from which more of our boys are being sent, and the shelter is a most comfortable place. The estimated cost for these shelters for eight months is placed at $48,000.

Germany and the Baltic

Germany Would Try to Change International Status of the Baltic

If the German coast line is pushed northward to the Gulf of Riga or beyond, the international status in the Baltic is bound to be greatly affected, but whether Germany would close "the Northern Dardanelles" is doubtful enough. She would have to make an agreement for this purpose with the three Scandinavian countries or forcibly annex territories at the Baltic entrance. Even so, an outlet might still be left by way of Archangel and Alexandrovsk. Also, a certain amount of traffic in non-bulky goods which could afford a high freight rate might be continued by way of Sweden and Norway by rail round the north of the Gulf of Bothnia. There is no doubt, however, that if Germany could succeed in making the Baltic a mere cistern, a shrewd blow might be dealt at the most ancient of our English trades. The allies, however, have a very strong economic position against Germany, and should be able effectually to counter check and such designs of these. Certainly Sweden may be expected to say a word, perhaps a strong word, about this. The Baltic is a German lake.—Westminster Gazette.

They Cleanse While They Cure—Farnelle's Vegetable Pills are composed, mainly dandelion and manna, cleanse the stomach and intestines of deleterious matter and restore the deranged organs to healthful action. Hence they are a sure remedy for indigestion available to-day. A trial of them will establish the truth of this assertion and do more to convince the sinner than anything that can be written of these pills.

Saved the Day

Determined to Hold on to the Advanced Line at All Costs

"By his prompt and decisive action," the official dispatches of the war, he inspired his men with confidence; and if it had not been for this heroic and courageous determination on his part the whole of the objectives gained would have had to be abandoned." The hero of this striking tribute is Second Lieutenant W. H. Moberly, Oxfordshire and Bucks Light Infantry. In making his gallant enemy position all three company commanders had been killed, and the troops on both flanks had failed to reach their objectives. Communications with battalion headquarters failed, as runners were unable to get through the machine gun fire from the front and flanks. In these circumstances this officer determined to hold on to the advanced line at all costs, and by defending his flanks and organizing an effective resistance to counter-attacks he saved the situation. Second Lieutenant Moberly has now received the D.S.O.

The Farmer's Garden

Greater Returns Than The Same Area of Ground Devoted to Ordinary Farm Crops

"It is impossible," says a farming author, to estimate the value of the vegetables that may be grown in a garden on the farm." It is safe to say that a home garden, properly tended, will give a greater return than the same area of ground devoted to ordinary farm crops.

It is true, it is true, that fresh vegetables form a comparatively small portion of the diet in many farm houses, it is equally true that there is great satisfaction to all concerned to have a good supply of vegetables available for table use, in their season. Ask your food controller. Vegetables and fruits contain most of the essential salts required by the human system, so that a combination of these with Home-Grown vegetables are preferable to those bought on the market for good hygienic reasons, well known to those who have to buy, or think they must.

According to the Cologne People's Gazette, Admiral von Tirpitz, addressing a meeting of the Fatherland Party of Cologne said: "As soon as England's robbery of ships ceases because there are no more to rob, England will speedily feel the full intensity of the U-boat war. Unfortunately the U-boat war has not received sufficient political support. We shall, however, hold out longer than England, and victory cannot escape us, if we tenaciously pursue our aim."

He concluded that the Belgians question remained the pivot of the war.

A Jersey boy came home the other day to communicate unusual news.

"And so your teacher, he dead?" asked the mother, horrified at the lad's announcement.

"Yes," said the boy. But, after a moment's reflection, he added: "After all, what's the good of that while the school is still there?"—Harper's.

The Cause of Heart Trouble

Faulty digestion causes the generation of gases in the stomach which inflate and press down on the heart and interfere with its regular action, causing faintness and pain. 15 to 30 drops of Mother Seale's Dandelion Syrup after meals sets digestion right, which allows the heart to beat full and regular.

Tirpitz on Robbery

According to the Cologne People's Gazette, Admiral von Tirpitz, addressing a meeting of the Fatherland Party of Cologne said: "As soon as England's robbery of ships ceases because there are no more to rob, England will speedily feel the full intensity of the U-boat war. Unfortunately the U-boat war has not received sufficient political support. We shall, however, hold out longer than England, and victory cannot escape us, if we tenaciously pursue our aim."

He concluded that the Belgians question remained the pivot of the war.

A Jersey boy came home the other day to communicate unusual news.

"And so your teacher, he dead?" asked the mother, horrified at the lad's announcement.

Every Farmer Needs a Ford

THE Motor Car is a greater convenience to the average farmer than the telephone, the rural mail or even the grain binder.

The binder which is considered as a very useful implement is rarely used more than a few days during the entire year. The rest of the time it stands idle, taking up space, while the automobile is available for use throughout all seasons, and both day and night.

It is ever ready to run down the lane to the back field or the pasture with a parcel or a message, or take you and your family to town for shopping purposes—or on an errand to the neighbors.

The motor car is called upon whenever anything is wanted in a hurry. It is the most useful implement or convenience for the farm. It helps you conserve your energies and time for productive work and enables you and your family to accomplish more with less energy. You surely feel the need of a Ford. Why not order one today?
